

The November 3, 2015 membership meeting of the Claremont Senior Center was called to order at 12:40 PM by Chairman Peg Lapointe. Sixteen members were in attendance.

The board members present were Moe St. Pierre, Judy St. Pierre (treasurer), Ken Lewis, Marilyn Gilbert, Peg Lapointe (chairman), and Claire Lessard (director). Tom Livenson and Faith LaBelle (secretary) were excused.

Minutes of the October meeting were read by Marilyn Gilbert. A motion to accept the minutes was made by Vie Small and seconded by Priscilla Roberts. Motion carries.

Director Claire Lessard read a Thank You note from Lencie Raynor. The October blood drive was sponsored by the Center. We provided the food for those donating blood.

Treasurer Judy St. Pierre explained the financial report. October was in the red, but there were two checks ready to be deposited in November. Copies are always available at the front desk. A motion to accept the financial report was made by Ed Small and seconded by Rita Wolfe. The motion carried.

Clipboards for several upcoming and proposed events have been placed in the reception desk area. Members are encouraged to read about the events and sign up for events that interest them.

The Veteran's dinner will be Tuesday November 10, 2015. Please sign up to attend. This dinner is free for all Veterans.

There will be a Name Your Price yard sale on November 28th and 29th from 9 AM to 2 PM. Help is needed for this fundraiser. Please pick your day and time from the clipboard in the reception area of the center. Also needed are clean gently used items for the sale.

A boiled ham dinner will be offered December 6th, 2015 from 11:30 AM till 1:30 PM. This is a Sunday dinner and is open to the public. Cost is $10.00 pre-sign up and $12.00 at the door.

The Hospitality Group is thinking about having a New Year's gathering. Proposed activities would be pool, cards, a movie, or just socializing. Doors would be opened at 7 PM. Information is on the sign up clipboard at the reception desk. If there is interest, the group will proceed. Plans for a Super Bowl Sunday are also in the thinking stage.

Claire gave an update on the roof. The paperwork is done and has been mailed to Dan Pitman at the USDA. The next OK will include a Notice to Proceed for particulars. Shingles and nails to come!!

Peg asked if anyone had noticed the new LED efficient lights that brighten the lobby. Joe 'Doc' Bouchard mentioned that they were very bright and hit you right in the eyes when you come in. They also glare on the television making viewing difficult. A member donated his time for the installation. They can now be seen from the outside. Art Fines donated the open sign. Thanks to all involved.

Computer use will now be limited to two hours a day. A sign up sheet will be available at the desk.

As of November 1, 2015 through April 2016, no overnight parking will be permitted. This will allow for easier plowing during the winter season. The center is not responsible for damages to vehicles parked overnight.

The building will be closed at 4 PM. No one will be allowed to stay after that time.

The free lunch drawing was won by Dennis Fontaine.

Being no further business, a motion to adjourn was made by Denny Francais. The motion carried.

Respectfully Submitted,

Marilyn Gilbert.
